PARTICIPATION

Participation is optional, but you must fill out this form if you'd like your dancer to participate. Dancers who choose not to participate will still be included in class and serve an important role in class. Learning the dance is only a small portion of class time and does not take away from technique each week.

There is a costume fee for all classes (with the exception of adult classes).

Payment plans are available for costumes so please reach out if you will need to split up payments. Once your form is received the costume fees will be added to your account.
